Circular

Subject: 2nd Car Parking applicable to Society Members

As per the rules of the society, members of the society are allowed 2nd car to be parked inside the society premises for which a monthly payment of Rs.100/- per month is applicable.

The above charges are applicable in case member decide to avail of this opportunity irrespective of the whether the car is parked for the full or part month.

However, in case, member decides not to avail of this facility, he/ she must give a written communication to the society office so that the charges are not included in the monthly maintenance bill. In the event, member parks the 2nd car in the society even for a day, the 2nd car will be treated as Guest car and charges as applicable for Guest car will be levied for such members.
